Hertz was general manager of the Atherton Club in Novato and president of the exclusive Bolema Club, a hunting and fishing preserve. Income Tax School Set Dec. 7-8

The Income Tax Schools sponsored by the Arkansas Agricultural Extension Service and the Internal Revenue Service will be conducted again this year, announced J. G. Kumpe, Extension Farm Management Specialist.

The school in Hope will be held December 7 and 8, at the Red River Vocational Technical School.

Registration, which is free will begin at 8:30 a.m. on the first day. Classes will begin at 9:00 a.m. and adjourn at 4:30 p.m. each day. All individuals interested are requested to contact the County Extension Office and give their name and address to enroll. Kumpe says L. D. Crenshaw, Internal Revenue Service Agent and Certified Public Accountant, will teach the IRS codes and regulations. Crenshaw is well known to tax consultants and farm people in Arkansas as he has been assisting with the Extension sponsored schools for eight years.

Others on the program will be Robert Hale, area farm manage-

Financial Seminar at Tech School

Chamber of Commerce Manager B. N. Holt announces a one day Financial Management Seminar to be held in Hope December 19, 1967. The seminar will be conducted in the Red River Vocational Technical School, Highway 29 South, Hope, Arkansas. Mr. J. W. Rowe, Director of Red River Vocational Technical School, will assist in conducting the seminar.

Co-sponsoring the seminar with the Technical School and the Chamber of Commerce is the Industrial Research and Extension Center of the University of Arkansas. Frank Hall, Coordinator of the University's educational programs, states the prime objective of this seminar is to acquaint the businessmen with the necessary information for decision making and the profitability which it affords. The program content is applicable to manufacturing, retailing, and service industries.

The seminar will feature three outstanding speakers, experts in the field of financial management. Pat J. Bell received his M.B.A. from the University of Arkansas. He is manager in the Little Rock office of the accounting firm, Ernst & Ernst. Bill Cox is Assistant to the President of Harding College at Searcy and the Director of Harding's Placement Bureau and American Studies Program. He was formerly General Manager of the Dallas Ceramic Co., the world's third largest manufacturer of ceramic tile. James H. Hopper was formerly Internal Auditor for the General Electric Co. He is currently manager of the Little Rock office of Ernst & Ernst. All three instructors are members of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The seminar is sponsored by Hope Chamber of Commerce, Red River Vocational Technical School, Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, University of Arkansas and the Small Business Administration. The sponsors said that management personnel of both small and medium sized firms are especially invited to attend. Individuals interested in attending this seminar should contact B. N. Holt, Hope Chamber of Commerce, 108 West Third.

ment specialist, Kumpe, and other Extension personnel.

A new feature on the program this year will be a description of the Farm Record and Management Service Program by Lloyd O. Satterfield, Director of Farm Bureau's Farm Management-Farm Record Program.

This year's tax school will be interesting, informative and profitable to those who attend. The changes in the regulations on investment credit alone will be worth your time to attend, Kumpe advises. Individuals who keep their own records and have a tax consultant complete their returns will benefit by taking this tax course. The school is open to all individuals—teachers, bookkeepers, secretaries, lawyers, tax consultants, CPA's—employees of corporations specializing in filing tax returns and federal and state employees who counsel with farmers on finance or management.

$3 Welfare Cut From Medical Part

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock, saying his department must "exercise fiscal responsibility now," announced today that the $3 monthly Social Security premium for supplemental medical insurance is being dropped.

The $3 is a physician's fee for elderly welfare recipients. "This action, which is one of several economy measures under study by the agency, is being taken because there is simply not enough money to finance all the current welfare programs," Blaylock said.

"This has been a painful decision but the agency's financial situation gives me no other choice," he said. "We would like to continue the premium payment program if the legislature will provide the means." Blaylock, who has been embroiled in what he calls a financial dilemma for several months, said the department will continue to assist the needy elderly residents by paying the $40 deductible requirement under the hospital insurance provision of Medicare.

The $3 month medical insurance payments were begun 18 months ago for welfare recipients over 65 years of age.

The department said welfare recipients currently receiving either Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefits will have the $3 deducted from their checks. Social Security will bill those welfare recipients who receive neither Social Security nor Railroad Retirement. State welfare checks will not be affected, Blaylock said.

"The Welfare Department must exercise fiscal responsibility now," Blaylock said. "We cannot delay making economy measures until the current legislative audit is completed."

Cyprus Head Blocking Agreement

By PHILIP DOPOULOS
Associated Press Writer
ATHENS (AP) — President Makarios of Cyprus appeared today to be blocking a Greek-Turkish agreement to avert war over his island nation as U.S. envoy Cyrus Vance flew back to Athens from Nicosia.

Diplomatic sources had reported earlier that Greece and Turkey were ready to announce a settlement ending Turkey's threat to invade the island 40 miles off Turkey's southern coast.

"Our efforts for peace met with success," said Secretary-General Manlio Brosio of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, who with Vance and Jose Rolz Bennett of the United Nations has been shuttling back and forth between Ankara and Athens.

Vance had flown to Nicosia before dawn Wednesday, reportedly to get a quick yes or no from Makarios on the proposals. But it was early today before he emerged from meetings with the leader of the island's Greek Cypriot majority.

Town Wrecked by Quake, 8 Slaves Dead

BELGRADE (AP) — An earthquake thundering across the Yugoslav-Albanian border wrecked the town of Debar in western Yugoslav Macedonia today, killing at least eight persons and injuring 40.

Belgrade radio said it was feared the wreckage concealed many more dead.

Officials in Debar reported, after telephone communication was re-established, that almost every house in town was destroyed or so badly damaged as to be uninhabitable. Seven thousand of the town's 8,000 residents were reported in the streets or in parks, made more miserable by rain.

Cars Creating Campus Problem

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The sharp increase in the number of college students and their cars are creating a big headache for campus security officers.

"Ninety percent of our problems involve traffic and parking," Bobby Hudson, chief of West Texas state University's five-man security department, told a meeting of 14 security officers from 27 state and junior colleges in Texas and New Mexico Wednesday.

the polished shoes and a necktie. What was so special about him? Not experience, neither of you had any. ATTITUDE, son, ATTITUDE, put him on the payroll. He wanted the job badly enough to shuck the leather jacket, get a haircut and look in the phone book to find out what this company makes. He took time to find out my name and he called me Mr. or "Sir", not Hey you. I rather imagine he knew how to spell my name correctly, too. He did his best to impress me. That's where he edged you out.

You see, kid, people who hire people aren't "with" a lot of things. We know more about Bing than Ringo, and we have some Stone Age ideas about who owes whom a living. Maybe that makes us prehistoric, but there's nothing wrong with the checks we sign, and if you want one you'd better turn on our wave length.

I want someone who will go out in the plant, keep his eyes open and work for me like he'd work for himself. I couldn't care less if you are behind in your car payments. I want you to be interested in My problems, if you have the vaguest idea of what I'm trying to say, let it show next time you ask for a job. You'll be head and shoulders over the rest!

Look, kid: the only time jobs grew on trees was while most of manpower was wearing G.I.'s and pulling R.P. For the rest of his story you've had to get a job like you get a girl: "Case the situation, wear a clean shirt, and try to appear willing."

You may not believe it, but all around you employers are looking for young men (and women) smart enough to go after a job in the old-fashioned way. When they find one, they can't wait to unload some of their worries on him.

For both our sakes, GET EAGER, will you? --EMPLOYER

Dear Helen: I guess you know that all girls of 13 have problems in their somewhat exciting lives. My problem is that my Dad is very reasonable mostly, but sometimes I just don't know. Well, one day I asked if I could get my ears pierced, and he was very nice about it, but Mom heard him saying "yes" and hit the ceiling, saying I was too young. I started crying (I am very sentimental). Since Dad hates to see me cry, he said, "Why don't you write and get Helen's opinion?" I was so happy I kissed him and went to work writing but sent it to the wrong place, so now I am re-writing, and I know you'll say the right thing! --TROUBLED

Dear Troubled: Gosh, honey, you make it tough for anyone to say the "wrong" thing, but even while I hate myself, I'll have to side with your mother. Why not wait a year, and then perhaps she will agree with your Dad. --H.

Negro Star Against Any Boycott

By JERRY LISK
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Willie White, feminine Negro star aiming at her fourth Olympic Games, suggested Wednesday proponents of a boycott of the 1968 Mexico City Olympics by Negro athletes are on the wrong track.

"Boycotting the Olympics is boycotting the nations of the world in a great display of equality and friendship," Miss White, 27, a world class long jumper since the 1956 Melbourne Olympics, told The Associated Press.

"I can suggest specific issues and more specific methods of protest in behalf of Negro status than this boycott proposal which seems to be centered around San Jose, Calif."

"The question could be brought up why don't we have Negroes on our Olympic swimming, gymnastics and many other Olympic units beyond track, basketball and boxing."

"This is something that could be protested directly to the U.S. Olympic Committee, and nothing so vague as an Olympic boycott against a body of nations."

Miss White, a shapely practical nurse and an inoculating technician for the Chicago Board of Health, said her only knowledge of the West Coast boycott movement came from reading newspapers.

"I'm sure if it were bigger and more widespread, other people would know more about it," said Willie, who wears her red hair cropped short.

"I know other Olympic prospects like Charlie Greene and Ralph Boston have the same reaction I do. How can you say you won't compete in the Olympics until you make the team? Nobody makes you go out and run, you do it on your own."

Miss White, who won the third place silver medal in the 1956 Olympics broad jump, pointed out that the U.S. Olympic team is financed by public contributions.

"Suppose I'm just John Dow, a Negro citizen, and I'm in a movie house where I'm asked to contribute to the Olympics," said Willie. "I go in my pocket and shell out my last dollar to help send our team to Mexico City. Then, my fellow athlete says he won't go to the Olympics. My dollar isn't a white dollar, it's a Negro dollar."

Miss White, a Tennessee State star at 16, has recovered from hamstring muscle injuries which slowed her in 1965 and 1966. In this year's Pan-American Games at Winnipeg she leaped 20-3 for a third place silver medal.

She is working out every week with the Mayor Daley Youth Foundation track team and hopes to qualify for the 1968 Olympics. Willie finished 12th in the long jump at the 1960 Rome Olympics and 11th in the 1964 Tokyo Games.

Life of a U.S. $1 bill is about 13 months in circulation.

Hope Girls Win Contest at Cale

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Coming into their own in the final quarter, the Hope Lady Cats rolled to a 53-26 victory over Cale Tuesday night at Cale. In other games the Bobkittens and the "B" Lizards suffered close defeats to their Cale opponents.

After taking three minutes to score their first field goal, it appeared that the Lady Cats were in for another rough night on offense, and this continued up to the half, when the Ladies led Cale 22-13. At this point a break came to Hope that was really worrisome for a while, as forward Carol Anthony tripped and fell on her way to the dressing rooms at halftime, and sprained her ankle.

Carol stayed out for the third quarter, but came back for the last period ready to show her stuff, even though she was limping a little. The Lady Cats had built their lead up to 29-17 in that third quarter, when one of Cale's fine guards, Almand, injured her knee and was helped from the court. This, of course, held the game up for a while, and soon after the delay came the end of the quarter with Hope ahead 31-17.

In those last seven minutes the Lady Cats were a completely different team, however, with the guards' harassing proving effective. Still, the best thing about that last period was that Hope scored 22 points, as the forwards showed their strengths, both passing and shooting.

Carol Anthony was the head gunner for Hope with 24 points, followed by Kathryn Coleman, who sank 16 points in her best game yet. After her Gail Hartsfield had five, and Jo McKamie and Retha Adams had 4 each. Next the Lady Cats play Ashdown at 6:30 p.m. Saturday night in Ashdown.

After the game, coach Charlotte Gibson commented that "the guards did a fine job, and the forwards looked much better at the end. However, we will know for sure after the Ashdown game." This is very true, and the Lady Cats also will be remembering last year in the finals of the district tournament, when Ashdown knocked Hope out of a state tourney berth, 41-37.

The first game of the evening was the first of the season for the Hope Bobkittens, and they showed great potential in losing to a good Cale club 42-40. Coach Gaylord Solomon, who only had eight practices before this first game, really put the fight in his boys, and they showed it right down to the final whistle. And what a game it really was.

With three nip-and-tuck quarters behind them, the Kittens had fought to a 32-32 deadlock. It was the same way for the rest of the game, too, until the more experienced Cale boys came out on top by two. The reason this writer is not bitter at all over the game is because Coach Solomon was starting three eighth-graders, and all three played fine games under the basket.

Bill Lee, a good athlete and only an 8th grader, made high point with 10 in his first game. The two starting freshmen, Ronnie Massanelli and Parker Powell, each bagged eight points, and Lynn Norton had six. Charles Rateliff and Tim White popped four apiece to round it out, and Fred Yarborough led Cale with 17 points.

Last night the Bobkittens lost to Magnolia 27-21 in the Stamps Jr. Tournament.

Farr Named the Best on Defense

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Miller Farr stuck his finger in Houston's dam and presto, the Oilers became American Football League title contenders.

Farr was named the American Football League's Defensive Player of the Week for the second time this season by The Associated Press today for his part in Houston's 27-6 victory over Boston last Sunday. He is the first man to receive Player of the Week honors twice this season.

When Houston Coach Wally Lemm studied the Oilers' statistical performance after last season, it wasn't too tough for him to see where Houston was hurting most.

"We gave up 25 touchdowns over the left cornerback position last year," said Lemm. "That had to stop."

So the Oilers dealt for Farr, surrendering linebacker John Baker and tackle Scott Appleton to get him away from the San Diego Chargers.

"The trade for Farr helped us where we needed help most," said Lemm. "He's as good as any defensive back I've ever had."

And that would include Larry Wilson and Pat Fischer, who played under Lemm when he coached the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League.

Only one touchdown has been scored in Farr's zone this season and that by San Diego's dynamic flanker, Lance Alworth. Over-all, the Oilers, who trail New York by one game in the AFL's Eastern race, have surrendered only 12 TDs all year—less than half the number scored over the left cornerback zone alone last season.

Against Boston, Farr made two interceptions, returning one 62 yards for a touchdown. He also recovered a Patriot fumble that Houston turned into a field goal.

The two interceptions gave him a league leading eight for the season. He has returned three for touchdowns and has chalked up 258 yards running them back.

Writer Picks All Opponent Grid Team

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

With the football season over for this area anyway, many all-star teams are being selected and released at about this time. This writer, to follow suit, has chosen an offensive and defensive squad from the eleven Bobcat opponents.

These teams were not chosen on the basis of the whole year's performances, rather they were picked on the strength of their play against the Bobcats only. Because of this several of the all-district athletes are off this list, mostly because of injury. There were many good football players to choose from, but this is the way it finally worked out. I give you a self-proclaimed All-Opponent team for the 1967 grid-iron season.

Champion Cagers Not Doing Well

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Is there anything wrong with the Philadelphia 76ers, champions of the National Basketball Association?

A year ago at this time they were rolling merrily along at a 19-2 clip. Today they are 15-7 and second to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Division.

"I don't know what the answer is," said Coach Alex Hannum after the 76ers had taken a 113-95 whipping from the San Francisco Warriors at the Philadelphia Spectrum Wednesday night.

And big 7-foot-1 Walt Chamberlain, who scored only 12 points, nine in the last five minutes, asserted, "There's nothing wrong with me."

It was the seventh straight victory for San Francisco and moved the Warriors within one-half game of the first-place St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division.

New York scored a 119-99 road victory over Cincinnati and Detroit, playing at home, defeated Los Angeles 127-123 in the other scheduled NBA games.

The last time the Warriors played in Philadelphia they beat Chamberlain to just one point. This time 6-11 Nate Thurmond of the Warriors held Chamberlain to three field goals, the first of which came with five minutes left and the 76ers behind by 16 points.

Jeff Mullins, with 22 points, and Fred Hetzel, with 20, topped the Warriors. Chel Walker got 24 and Luke Jackson 23 to top the 76ers.

New York broke a 43-43 tie with Cincinnati on Phil Jackson's basket, then opened a 32-point lead to rout the Royals, once again minus Oscar Roberts because of a knee injury. Willis Reed's 18 points forced the Knicks. Happy Hairston was high for the Royals with 20.

Key points by Dave Bing and Eddie Miles, snapped a 10-11 tie and enabled Detroit to hold off a late surge by Los Angeles. Bing and Miles each got 32 points for the Pistons. Elmer Baylor topped the Lakers with 30.

New Jersey beat Anaheim 106-91. Kentucky routed Dallas 111-87, and Houston defeated Oakland 102-91 in the American Basketball Association.

Crippled Bowler Has Fine Score

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Mary Jones, crippled by polio as a child, now enjoys a 37 average in a women's bowling league.

Mrs. Jones first began bowling from a chair at the local bowling alley. Finding this arrangement too difficult, she started bowling with crutches, and has been "rolling off and on ever since."

The 22-year-old mother of two small children says bowling has "been an outlet for me."

"I just hope other people don't think I shouldn't do it."

Consumer Education Week Full of Activity in Hempstead Co.

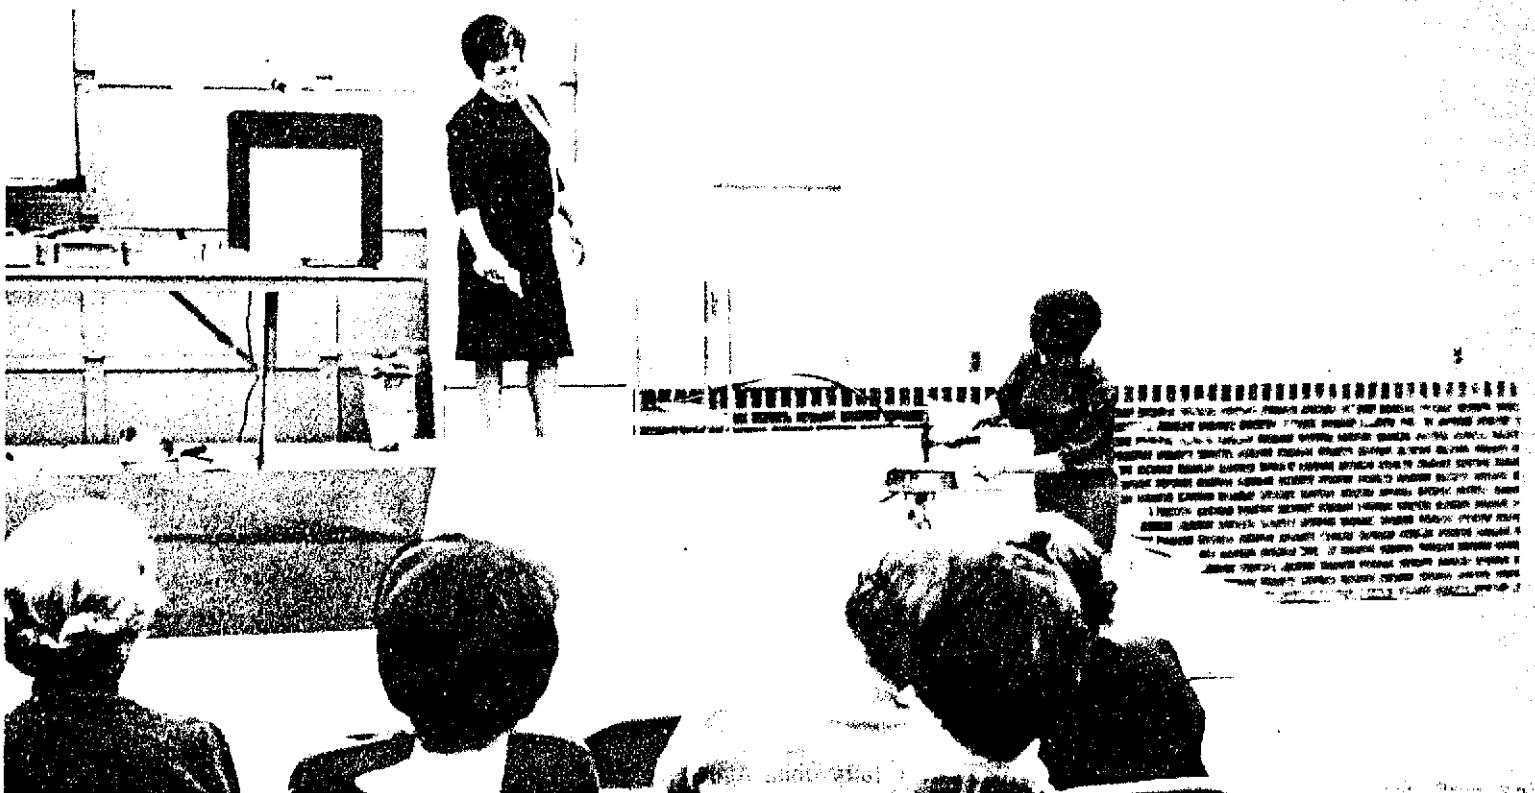

Consumers - Mrs. Jewel Perkins, Mrs. J.T. Honeycutt, Mrs. Bob Martin, and Mrs. Estelle Spearman look at display of consumer bulletins available from Agriculture Extension Office free upon request. Bulletins are available to help consumers select, use, and care of appliances, home furnishings, and food.

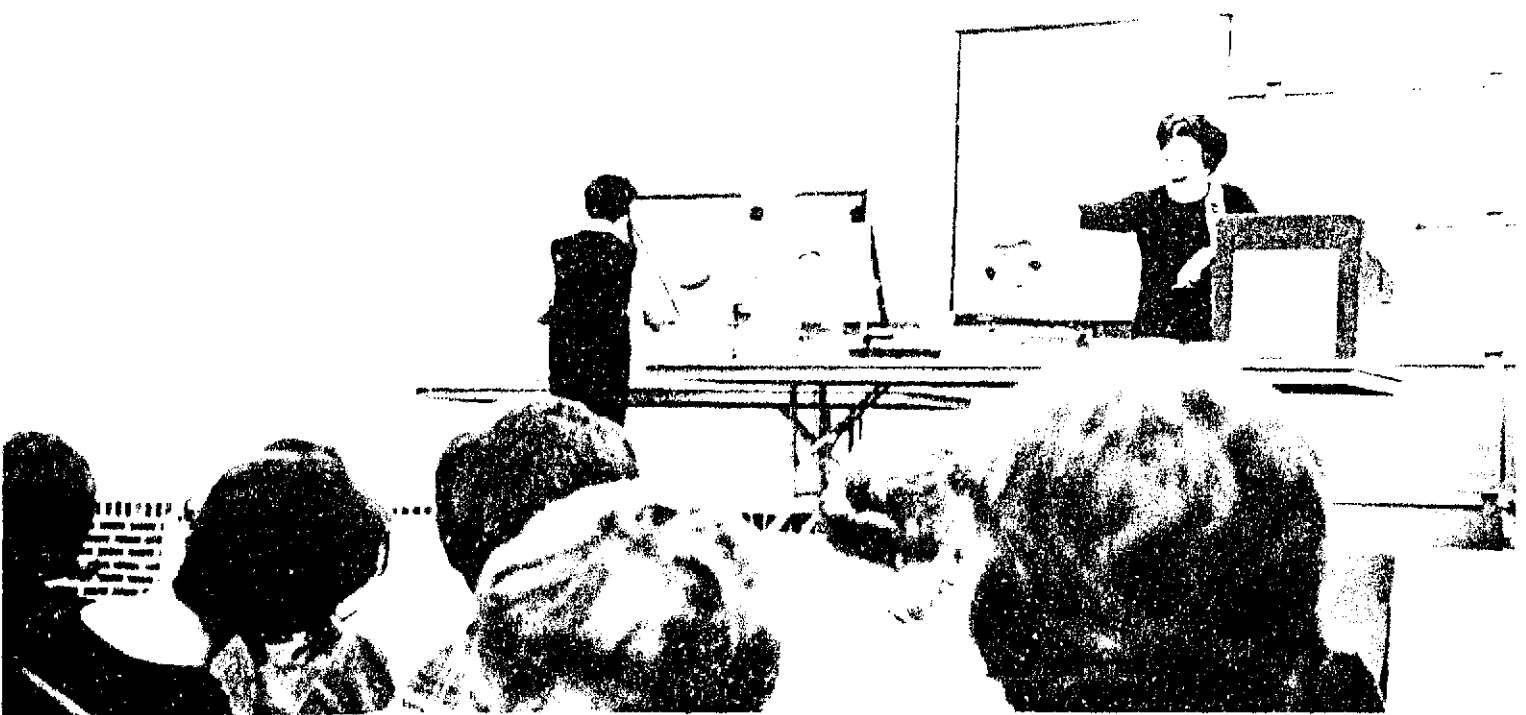

Extension Home Management Specialist, Elizabeth Ellis, explains difference in "cast" and "sheet" utensils. Cast utensils are made by pouring liquid metal into molds to harden. As a result, cast utensils may be somewhat porous. Air pockets make the utensils subject to breakage and hot spots. Air pockets illustrate need for seasoning cast iron. Sheet utensils are made by forging sheets of aluminum over dies of the needed size and shape. Specialist said expensive equipment is not necessary for cooking foods to conserve their nutrients. She said that any utensil that has a lid that fits the top and is heavy enough to prevent vapor and steam from escaping to any extent, whether aluminum, enamel, glass or stainless steel, is suitable for cooking with a minimum amount of water. She added that low temperature was needed.

Mrs. Alphonso T. Denham, Assistant Extension Home Economist, is shown at Consumer Education Activity demonstrating recommended ways to clean utensils. Mrs. Denham gave a home recipe of vinegar and salt to clean copper-bottom utensil. She referred to recommendations for cleaning other metals as are included in Extension Bulletin, "Take It Easy Cleaning House," available free upon request.

Consumers learn why they have a warped, rocking skillet. Sandra Propps, Assistant Extension Home Economist, demonstrates at right a simple way the problem may be corrected. She said to heat skillet to get metal very hot, remove skillet and place upside-down on floor; place 1"x4" board on skillet and hit with hammer. She explained that skillets are designed with a concave indentation of bottom. When heated, the metal expands to level with surface unit. If homemaker pours cold liquid into pan while it is hot, metal does not have time to go back into its original shape. When continued, skillet becomes warped.

Elizabeth Ellis, Extension Home Management Specialist, illustrates how "hot spots" are caused in stainless steel, stainless steel copper or aluminum clad or core and pyroceram by dry or high heat. Hot spots were explained to be source of food-sticking problem.

Melba Doyle, Home Advisor for Arkansas Power and Light Company, showed graphic results from improper use of utensils and incorrect use in relation to range. Results are related by consumers in mirror at left. Product crispness, volume, and crumb were related to type of utensil used.

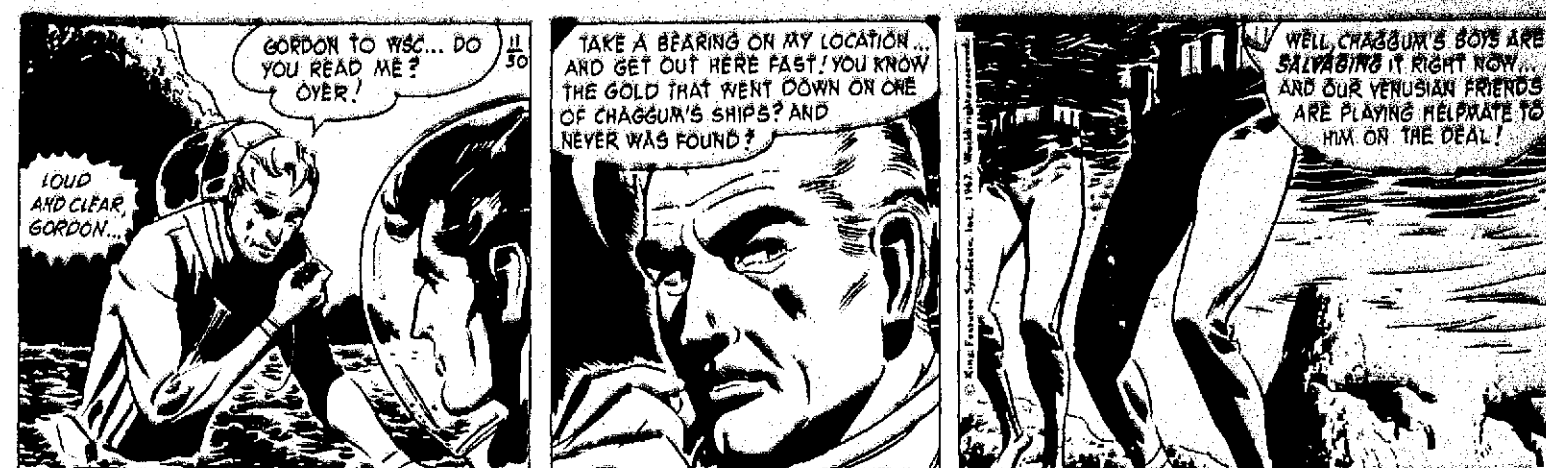

Over one-hundred consumers participated in day session for Consumer Education Activity on "Learn the Truth About Pot and Pans," held during Consumer Education Week, November 9, at the District Livestock Show Coliseum in Hope. This educational activity was sponsored by the County Family Living Committee in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service. Various organizations, Hope Star and KAAH, assisted in the promotion of teaching the consumer with knowledge and understanding of utensils. Mrs. Arch Wylie, County Family Living Committee Chairman, introduced the program discussing and illustrating consumer problems and needs that promoted planning the educational activity. Dolores McBride, Extension Home Economist, presided over activity. Consumers attending expressed desire in plans for similar educational activities in future. Miss McBride says those unable to attend meeting may request information on utensils from the County Extension Office, and it will be mailed free upon request.

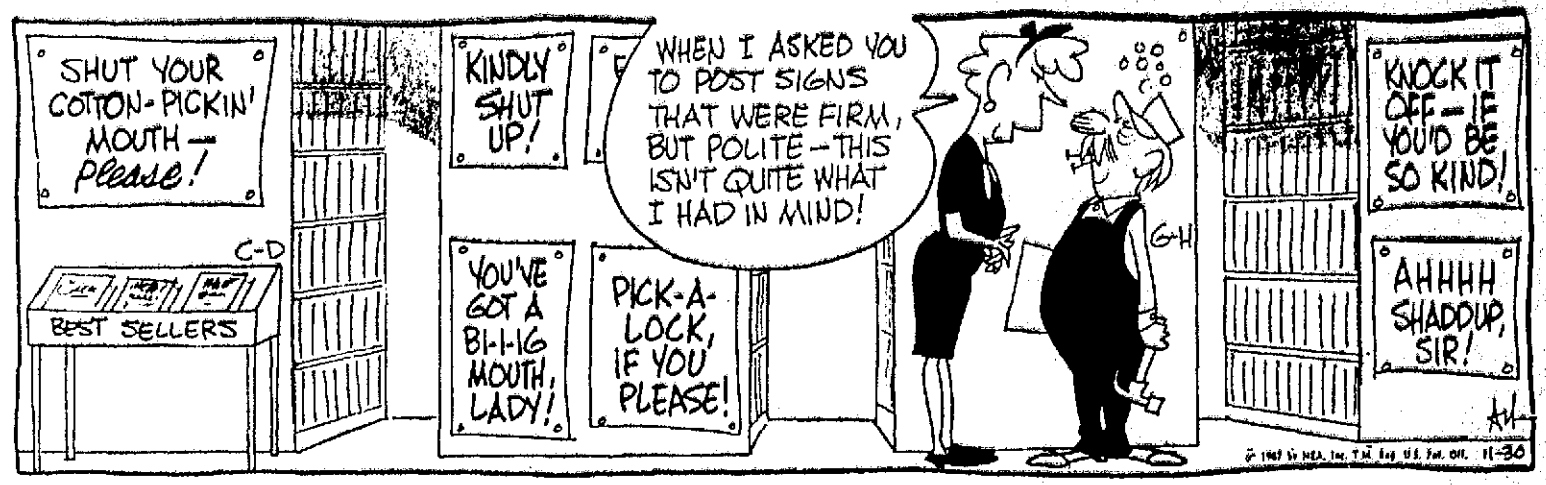

Fifty consumers met for night session for Consumer Education Activity and are shown participating in a quiz leading to an informative, lively discussion of the why's and how's of using and caring for utensils.

B Boys Drop Close One to Cale

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Not quite sharp enough in their first outing, the Hope "B" Lizards lost game the first to Cale 51-50 Tuesday night at Cale.

Actually, coach Joe Austin took his whole senior squad to Cale and played the seniors for about half the time, giving them some game experience before the Cats tackle the slick El Dorado Wildcats of Class AAA tomorrow night. In the end, though, the locals couldn't quite pull it out of the fire.

Some studs were born two nights ago, nevertheless, making the picture seem brighter than the one painted in yesterday's issue. Guard Richard Sallee, a senior transfer from New Orleans, showed fine poise and determination while leading the team on the court, and Richard will be most likely just the scoring punch that the Bobcats need when the rough conference road in January and February comes.

Also, senior John Henley reminded many of his brother Paul, who played for some fine HHS teams of several years back. Faking, driving, stealing, and scoring, John showed that he will give some needed help on the backboards. These are just two, but the games to come just might reveal a well-balanced ball club.

Finally getting to the game, which was a mind-bender all the way. The Bobcats jumped out to an early margin, but lost it in the second quarter when coach Austin began to substitute freely, giving nearly everyone a chance to play. This kept on until late in the game, when Cale began to mount a lead. With all the starters back in save Sallee, who had just fouled out, the Bobcats began their comeback mission trailing 49-41 with 1:30 on the clock.

Quickly Middlebrooks hit for two, and a few seconds later Larry East swished the nets from the baseline to come to within four. The teams then paddled the ball all over the court until Dwight Galloway picked up a loose ball and connected with a 15-foot jump-shot, and the Cats only trailed 49-47. Both teams hit a free throw, and Cale got the ball out under the Hope basket leading 50-48 with ten seconds left. Galloway then fouled, and was given a technical a few seconds later. Tidwell hit one of three shots, and the Bobcats were three down and five ticks to go.

Because of the technical Cale got the ball at mid-court, but when the ball was fumbled again Bobcat Ricky Putman was fouled while going after it. Ricky made both ends of a one-and-one, and the scoreboard read 51-50 Cale with two ticks remaining. Bobcat Larry East then made a fantastic effort and stole the ball away, and popped a 40-foot set shot barely after the buzzer. Oh, futility.

Leading the Bobcats in scoring was Richard Sallee with 14 points. Larry East was next with ten, John Henley scored 9, and Dwight Galloway had 5. Donnie Middlebrooks added four, Jimmy Singleton and Montie Garner had two each, and Wayne Norvell contributed one. Tidwell had 17, Glass 16, and Williams 13 to pace Cale.

Everyone remember to come out and support the Bobcats tomorrow night in the opening regular-season game with the El Dorado Wildcats in Jones Field House, with the "B" Lizards preceding at 6:30 p.m. The AAA Wildcats already have several wins under their belt, including one over the tough Crossett Eagles, and the Bobcats should have their hands full come Friday evening.

Baseball to Take Up Expansion

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Expansion was expected to be the big subject today when American and National League club owners started their sessions during the 66th winter baseball meetings.

The owners opened the day with a joint meeting presided over by Commissioner William D. Eckert, then split into league meetings which continue through Friday. They are to end the discussions with another joint meeting Saturday.

Expansion was expected to be the top subject for both leagues. The American League already has decided to expand to 12 teams in 1969 with the addition of Seattle and a replacement for the Kansas City Athletics, who moved to Oakland, but it has no decision yet on whether to add a team in St. Louis or Seattle. The National League has decided to add a team in St. Louis and a replacement for the Cincinnati Reds, who moved to San Francisco.

Kidney Transfer Patients Fine

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gerald Castro of San Jose, Costa Rica, who underwent a kidney transplant at the University of Arkansas Medical Center here Tuesday, was reported in satisfactory condition Wednesday, although a hospital spokesman said it probably would be several weeks before it could be determined whether Castro's body would accept the kidney he received from his father.

Retires After 52 Years in Baseball

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Trainer Eddie Weidner, the sage of the baseball clubhouse, was officially retired today after 52 years with the Baltimore Orioles.

A man who dearly loved the game of baseball and found the off-seasons the most difficult time of life, tried to take the retirement philosophically. But he didn't succeed.

"I won't miss the game much," he said. "Even if you eat chocolates forever, you get tired of them."

That from a man who joined the minor league Orioles as a 14-year-old scoreboard operator in 1916, and never left.

"Everybody slows up," Eddie said. "Now I'll be able to sit down when I want, go when I want and do things I want to do."

That from a man who worked under 15 managers, who ministered to hundreds of ball players since becoming head trainer in 1922 and never stopped praising baseball.

Somehow, the brave front put forth by Weidner didn't come off.

"Eddie lived two complete lives," said his wife Margaret. "He lived for baseball and for his family, and neither one suffered."

"After he was home two weeks when the season ended, he was no good. He started looking forward to spring training. We tried to stay out of his way."

In making the retirement announcement, Harry Dalton, the Orioles' director of player personnel, said, "No one I have known has worked harder or more conscientiously. He truly loved his job and put everything he had into it."

Weidner declined to name any favorite players through his long association with baseball.

"My favorite was the whole club," he said. "All of them. I met a lot of nice people in baseball—people who would be good anywhere."

Indiana Is Going With Their Sophs

By PAUL PETROTTA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — John Pont, who transformed Indiana's football team from a dead-end trolley into a Rose Bowl-bound express, said he attracted his crop of hotshot sophomores with a "don't fool them" recruiting pitch.

"We laid our offer on the line," Pont said. "As far as Indiana University was concerned, we told them the school had not been successful. But we said 'If you come here you will be on a team which will accomplish a first—one that will win.'"

The Hoosiers rose from a record of 3-16-1 the previous two seasons to a 9-1 record and a No. 4 ranking in the final Associated Press national poll of the season.

Indiana, which won its only Big Ten title in 1945 before the Rose Bowl pact with the West Coast teams was made, had its last winning season in 1958. Before Pont arrived in 1965, the record of the four preceding coaches was 42-108-3.

The scrambling tag was most associated with the sophomore trio of quarterback Harry Gosso, halfback John Isenbarger and flanker Jade Butcher. Gosso and Butcher teamed on electrifying pass plays. Isenbarger earned his fame with last-second decisions to run instead of punt. Pont's theory of "we're going to make mistakes, so we'll make them aggressively," affected his older players too.

In the Old Oaken Bucket battle with Purdue Saturday, senior linebacker Ken Kaczmarek showed the aggressiveness in the fourth quarter. He hit fullback Perry Williams charging through a line opening and forced Williams to fumble on the one-yard line.

That stalled Purdue's last strong drive, insuring Indiana's 19-14 victory, a tie for the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl journey to face top-ranked Southern California on Jan. 1.

30 Men to Fight Fines for Hunting

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP) — Two Harrisburg lawyers say they intend to subpoena all the members of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission as witnesses in a case involving the Thanksgiving Day arrest of 30 men who were charged with hunting in a restricted area without a permit.

Lohnes Tiner and John Henry said they represented eight of the men, who were arrested for duck hunting in Bayou DeView. All 30 of those arrested were hunting in the south end of the area, near Weidner.

The north end of the game preserve has been restricted for some time, but the south end was open for hunting last year.

"We take the position that the Game and Fish Commission has never passed the proper resolution of order restricting this area," Tiner said. "What we intend to do is to call the Game and Fish commissioners and request them, along with the state, to produce evidence of some type of order restricting this area."

Several of those arrested paid $25 fines plus court costs in Municipal Court here Monday. Others forfeited bonds.

Most of them contended that they weren't aware that the area had been restricted and that no signs were up at the time they were arrested.

Lake Neark Project to Be Dropped

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hugh Hackler, director of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, said Wednesday that plans for the Lake Neark project near Osceola were being dropped.

Hackler said the commission didn't have funds for the project, which was scheduled to be completed by the end of 1967. He said the project wasn't feasible because the area was subject to such flooding.

Hopes Board Will Not Intervene

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eagle Street of Cave City, chairman of the state Welfare Board, said Wednesday that he hoped the board wouldn't have to intervene in a dispute between the Arkansas Department and the Arkansas Nursing Home Association.

The association has attacked patient classification survey undertaken by Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock and has asked the board to investigate. Street said he thought the board should hold off until it was what happens Friday, when Blaylock is to meet with the board.

He added, however, that he thought the Welfare Department might be having classification problems, as was charged by the association.

"I think some of the classifications by the department are wrong," he said. "I have personal knowledge of some improper classifications that should be changed."

Street speculated that Blaylock might be trying to "get around" a $20-a-month increase in nursing home patients by the reclassification program.

Blaylock said he ordered the classification survey of five nursing homes only after county welfare visitors reported that some of the homes were being run at a loss.

The department pays $117, $187 and $217 a month for the three categories of care.

U.S., Russia May Resume Sports Duels

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Amateur Athletic Union is considering the possibility that the United States and Russia may resume dual sports events rivaling the Olympics.

David A. Melvin, AAU president, said a report from the Soviet Union indicated that the country was prepared to resume dual sports events.

Melvin said the AAU had received a letter from the Soviet Union indicating that the country was prepared to resume dual sports events.

Murder Charge Filed in Slaying

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — Deputy Prosecutor James A. Ross Jr. has filed a first-degree murder charge against John Gannaway, 23, of Warren. Gannaway is charged in the shooting death Saturday of Louis Dean Burns, 20, also of Warren. Burns' body was found in a wooded area near Arkansas 4 about one mile west of Willmar in Drew County.

Would Stop Prison Art Center Play

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Two former Tucker Prison Farm officials filed a motion in Circuit Court Wednesday asking Judge Henry W. Smith to halt the prison's cooperation with the Arkansas Arts Center in producing an original play that deals with brutality in the state prison system.

Thomas O. Murton, assistant state prison superintendent in charge of Tucker, permitted nine convicts to take roles in the play, which is scheduled to open at the Arts Center in Little Rock Wednesday.

Smith said attorneys for former Assistant Supt. Jim Bruton and one of Bruton's wardens had filed the motion. He said they objected to publicity surrounding the play.

Both Bruton and the warden are to be tried next spring on charges of excessive punishment of Tucker inmates.

Smith said he had asked the state Penitentiary Board to prohibit inmate participation in the play until he could hold a hearing on the motion.

The inmates, guarded by an unarmed trusty, had been commuting to Little Rock for nightly rehearsals all week.

Darold McArthur, the Arts Center director, said he had sent the inmates in the play for rehearsal. He said it was too late to replace them, and that the play couldn't be postponed without disrupting the schedule of plays for the season.

"I'll just have to do the best I can with what I've got," he said.

The play, "Of Prisons and Men," was written by Dr. James Barnes, the playwright in residence at the Arts Center, after extensive interviews and visits to Tucker.

Many of the first-world members of the cast had spent several months at Tucker in order to get a better idea of prison life.

TV Program Disowned by Democrats

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "Info '68," conceived in secrecy and swaddled in controversy since its birth Nov. 8, is no legitimate child of the Democratic State Committee, a member of the committee declared Wednesday.

Mayor Don Trumbo of Fayetteville said the series of five-minute television programs had never been discussed at a committee meeting and shouldn't be considered the official voice of the Arkansas Democratic Party.

Trumbo, who also serves as national committeeman for the Arkansas Young Democrats, called the program's paternity into question during the taping of a TV show to be broadcast at 10 a.m. Sunday. He expanded on his remarks later during an interview.

The state committee's last meeting was held "three or four months ago," he said, and he had heard nothing about the program before it went on the air.

He intends to bring the matter before the committee, he said, "if we ever have another meeting."

State Party Chairman Leon Catlett of Little Rock, who is authorized to call such meetings, was out of the state Wednesday and couldn't be reached for comment.

Catlett was the only Democratic official who made any mention of the program before it appeared. In a column in the November issue of the party's official publication, The New Democrat, he said to "Watch for Info '68."

The identity of the show's star, Mrs. Elizabeth Westmoreland of Little Rock, formerly of Massachusetts, Minnesota and Wisconsin, wasn't learned until about half an hour before the program went on the air at 10:30 p.m.

Catlett and J. P. "Sonny" Lybrand Jr., the party's executive secretary, later described her as the state committee's "coordinator for television."

Lybrand, a paid employee of the party, said Wednesday that he didn't know whether the program had been authorized by the state committee.

"It was handled through the party chairman," he said.

The program's first broadcast was devoted to a criticism of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller for signing Act 113 of 1967, a tax relief measure for industry. Mrs. Westmoreland echoed a charge by former Gov. Orval Faubus that the act had cost the state $9 million.

There were immediate screams from Democrats, who pointed out that the measure had been sponsored by a Democrat, state Rep. B. D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock, and had been passed overwhelmingly by a Democratic legislature.

Further telecasts of that particular program were canceled.

Trumbo brought that up again Wednesday. He said that even if the series had been authorized, it should have been supervised more closely.

"The business on Doug Brandon bothered me a great deal," he said.

Trumbo said he wasn't familiar with Act 113, but that he was disturbed that a "progressive young Democrat sponsored the bill, a Democratic legislature passed it, then the Democratic Party attacks it."

Mrs. Westmoreland said on Info '68 Wednesday night that, "It seems the Republican governor seeks to leave the impression with the rest of the world that Arkansas is a backward, benighted area inhabited by backward, ignorant people, and he is the only person who can lift them up."

She said Rockefeller had made "lighting and sarcastic" remarks about Arkansas and its people in recent speeches outside the state.

She said he also had "downgraded the state" during a recent news conference.

"He inferred, or stated openly, that we were last in almost everything worthwhile," she said.

Newspaper Photo Get Robbers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two men who surrendered to the law say they knew the jig was up when they saw themselves in newspaper photographs of a holdup.

Authorities said a hidden camera at the North Hollywood Savings and Loan Association snapped pictures during a $3,000 holdup Nov. 10.

Larry Oliver, 30, surrendered to police Tuesday. Leonard D. Santos, 23, went Monday to the FBI in San Francisco.

Both men were wanted on federal robbery warrants.

No Sign Tax Issue Will Be Speeded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Wilbur L. Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee told the Johnson administration in effect today that the economies it proposes are not enough to justify a tax increase.

Mills gave his views in a question-and-answer dialogue with top administration fiscal officers who were uniting in backing President Johnson's request for a 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes, coupled with spending cuts estimated at $4.1 billion, including $1.5 billion already made by Congress.

Mills, an Arkansas Democrat whose committee controls tax legislation, sprang on Secretary of the Treasury Henry Fowler a question as to what would happen if Congress passed a bill including the tax increase but providing that it take effect only when spending is cut to the 1967 level.

This referred to the level of spending in the year ended last June 30. The administration's proposed cuts apply to the following fiscal year.

"Don't you think this means the tax increase would never go into effect?" Mills persisted.

"I think that's right," Fowler replied.

At another point, Mills suggested to Fowler, "If you cut back enough, the American public might even support a tax increase that would balance the budget."

The committee has already received testimony that the deficit for this year, if nothing is done about taxes, will be about $22.5 billion.

In his questioning of Fowler, Budget Director Charles L. Schultz and Federal Reserve Chairman William McChesney Martin, Mills asked for assurances that the tax increase, if passed, would head off price increases next year. Both Fowler and Martin said they could not give such assurances, but Fowler said, "I can certainly tell you what will happen to prices if we don't pass the tax."

The current committee hearing opened Wednesday, with no member saying anything that challenged Mills' earlier statement that passage of a tax measure before Congress adjourns for 1967 would be impossible.

Auto Knocks Out Current

MARKED TIME, Ark. (AP) — An automobile skidded into a utility pole off Arkansas 135, about seven miles southeast of here, knocking out electrical power Wednesday to about a dozen Northeast Arkansas communities.

Authorities said power was out for up to two hours in Monticello, Manila, Leachville, Caraway, Lake City, Bay, Lunsford and several other small communities in Craighead, Poinsett and Mississippi counties.

Officers said the car, driven by Jimmy Mitchell, 18, of near Black Oak, skidded off the wet highway about 5 p.m.

An organizational meeting was held Wednesday morning at the Chamber of Commerce office for the newly elected executive committee of the Committee of 100.

The following officers were elected by those present: Arthur Strech, Chairman; Harold Hendrix, vice-chairman; B.N. Holt, secretary; Leonard Ellis, assistant secretary and Robert LaGrone treasurer.

The primary purpose of this organization is to provide financial assistance in the matter of seeking out and visiting industrial prospects.

The entire Committee, presently numbering 36, will meet within the next few days to adopt a Constitution and By-Laws under which the organization will operate.

McCarthy to Enter 4 Primaries, Challenge LBJ on War Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy announced today he will challenge President Johnson on the Vietnam issue in four Democratic presidential primaries and possibly two others.

"There is growing evidence of a deepening moral crisis in America," the Minnesota Democrat told a crowded news conference.

He said he will enter primaries in Wisconsin, Oregon, California and Nebraska.

He will decide within two weeks on Massachusetts and New Hampshire, McCarthy said.

McCarthy plans to announce formally today his intention to challenge President Johnson for the 1968 Democratic nomination for the White House.

His announced aim: To force a shift in U.S. policy in the Vietnam.

Congressman Traveling Can Collect Living Expenses Twice Daily

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Jet-age travel has added something new to congressional junketing: an opportunity to collect daily living expenses twice a day.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, showed the House Wednesday how it works and his colleagues responded by voting to prohibit such practices on a forthcoming trip by a House labor subcommittee.

Law limits congressional travelers to $50-a-day expenses in the currency of the country they are visiting. But the fast-moving congressmen frequently visit more than one country a day.

Gross said five junketers on a worldwide trip last year managed to collect $100 a day on 13 occasions by picking up $50 in each of two countries. He didn't name the travelers.

"If a racketeer offered a daily double like that it would go broke in a hurry," said Gross. He demanded that "this flagrant practice be stopped."

Gross' detailed account of how the junketers operated was frowned upon by Rep. Durward G. Hall, R-Mo., sponsor of the amendment to ban the practice in the future.

"I had intended not to instruct the members in the complete technique," said Hall, whose amendment was adopted by voice vote.

Gross also criticized the proposed trip of 11 members of a postal subcommittee to inspect mechanized post office in Europe and the delivery of military mail in Vietnam.

"You could accomplish more and save a lot of money," he told subcommittee Chairman Arnold Olsen, D-Mont., "for the price of taxicab fare to the Pentagon and the Post Office right here."

Gross said the subcommittee has made two similar trips in recent years "and since then the mail service has deteriorated. I don't think you're going to accomplish anything but have a nice junket."

Gross' attack brought forth ringing defenses of congressional travel by other members.

Hope Soldier Wounded in Hill 875 Fight

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A Hope soldier, W. V. Rutherford Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Will V. Rutherford, was wounded in the Hill 875 action in Vietnam. American forces suffered their heaviest casualties in this battle before ousting the enemy troops. Here's his letter to his parents regarding the battle.)

"Dear Mom and Dad,
"I imagine you've heard of the battle that my unit was mostly destroyed in. Yes, I was on Hill 875. There I received my second wound in just 15 days apart. I was scratched by an enemy bullet on the 6th of November. It wasn't serious, so I stayed in the field. On the morning of the 21st I took a bit of shrapnel from an enemy mortar while aiding the wounded. This too is not serious. Nothing at all to be alarmed about.

"Right now, after being evacuated to Dak Lo, — from there to Plei Ku, and from there to Qui Phong where I got in touch with Richard and he came and spent several hours with me until I was evacuated here to the Philippines last night.

"I'm scheduled to leave here today for Japan, some hospital near Tokyo, for 90 days.

"I guess God heard my prayers up on that hill. Without his help I wouldn't have made it. I don't feel like talking about what took place on that hill. I'll tell you all about it when I get home. I will tell you this though, I saved some lives and a bomb was accidentally dropped by the Air Force about 15 or 20 feet from me and some of the guys I was working on at the time, it kicked dirt all over us, but thank God it didn't explode. This thoroughly convinced me that there is a God who will answer prayers.

"Before I ended this letter we went to noon chow and soon after we returned we were put on buses and taken to the airfield. Now I'm aboard a jet headed for Japan. I'll mail this letter after we get there. I'm supposed to be there for 90 days, so as soon as I get the hospital's address I'll send it to you. I might get chance to enclose it in this letter.

"Well I'll close for now. You can rest assured that I'm doing excellent so there's no need to worry, but plenty of room for thanks." Your Son, — Brother

"P.S. I let Richard send my 1st Purple Heart to Mattle with instructions for her to send it on home."

House Destroyed, Saves His Cafe
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Fire destroyed his six-room frame house on Arkansas 5, about four miles north of here, but Walter Sawchuck saved his nearby cafe.

Hot Springs firemen said they couldn't come outside the city limits, and the fire had knocked out power to his water pump, so Sawchuck solved the problem another way.

He and some volunteers clambered onto the roof of the cafe and wet it down — with several cases of soda pop and beer.

McNamara Deal Has Created a Political Storm for President

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has stirred a new political storm by his performance in assigning Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara to the presidency of the World Bank.

If there was anything Johnson didn't need at this point it was a controversy over the retirement from his Cabinet of the last influential dissenter to the military chiefs' advice to go all out in the effort to win the Vietnam war quickly.

But a combination of the President's inherent secretiveness and the requirements of international protocol led Johnson into a political quagmire bound to remain sticky throughout his expected 1968 bid for re-election.

Despite the valiant efforts of McNamara, in announcing acceptance of the unanimously proffered bank post, to absolve his chief of putting him in his possible critical voice in drydock for next year's campaign, it seems likely Johnson's anti-war critics will seize on the action as precisely so motivated.

McNamara suggested in a Wednesday night acceptance of the bank board's election of him as president that this was a magnificent reward by the President to a bone-tired official who had served his country well for nearly seven years. But this did not square at all with McNamara was telling friends two days earlier.

At that time he said, according to them, that he had no thought of leaving his defense post in the foreseeable future. He had had no intimations from the President that a change was imminent. He was amazed when the news leaks indicated he was on his way out.

Yes, he told friends, he had discussed with the President the bank job about which retiring

Sentenced for Dodging the Draft

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Pochontas youth claiming membership in Jehovah's Witnesses has been sentenced to three years in prison on conviction of failing to submit for induction into the armed forces.

U. S. District Judge Gordon E. Young handed down the sentence to Jerry Wayne Johnson, 20, who testified that he was baptized into the Jehovah's Witnesses in February and was spending more than 27 hours a month in church work.

The Pochontas Draft Board ordered Johnson to report for induction on June 7.

Young said the board had placed Johnson in a conscientious objector class, meaning he would perform only noncombat duty.

Attack by Enemy Is Repelled

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese paratroopers reported killing 130 North Vietnamese in a new battle near Dak To Wednesday while American forces flown in as bait repelled an attack by Viet Cong and Communist regulars today near the U.S. Special Forces camp at Bu Dop. American firepower stopped the Red assault in a cemetery 50 yards from the U.S. lines.

About 800 government paratroopers fought elements of the 24th North Vietnamese regiment for six hours during a sweep operation six miles northeast of Dak To, the central highlands battleground where the costliest battle of the war ended last week. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

The victorious government battalions were the same units which seized Hill 1416 near Dak To during the bloody campaign to drive the North Vietnamese from strategic heights in the area. In that three-day battle, the South Vietnamese said they killed 256 of the enemy.

At Bu Dop, 80 miles north of Saigon, the enemy ran afoul of a battalion from the U.S. 1st Infantry Division. It had been flown in Wednesday after a mortar attack on the Special Forces camp and a ground assault on a South Vietnamese district headquarters compound at Bo Duc, 10 miles to the north, indicated a major battle might be in the offing.

Associated Press correspondent John Wheeler reported from Bu Dop that U.S. commanders sent the infantrymen in as bait, hoping to entice an enemy attack that would be vulnerable to the superior firepower from U.S. artillery and planes. This was the formula that gave the enemy heavy loss.

Auto Tags Go on Sale on December 1

Motor vehicle license plates will go on sale December 1 at the Hempstead County Revenue Office, Thalia Geist, Inspector said today.

Plate sales will continue through January. In previous years, license plates have been on sale only one month-January-causing long lines of motorists at local Revenue Offices.

The new license plates, which will have red numerals and letters on a white, reflectorized, background are guaranteed to last five years. As a result, the new plates will be registered to the buyer and not the vehicle. It does not have to be transferred when the car is sold or traded, on a white, reflectorized, background are guaranteed to last five years. As a result, the new plates will be registered to the buyer and not the vehicle. It does not have to be transferred when the car is sold or traded.

This means as auto owner can sell his car, remove the tag, and place it on another car as long as he owns the second vehicle. If the second car falls into the same weight classification as the old vehicle, the owner will only have to pay a $2 registration fee at his County Revenue Office.

Costs of vehicle licenses will be as follows:

Cars weighing between one and 3,000 pounds, $12; 3,001 to 4,500 pounds, $19; and autos weighing over 4,501 pounds, $26.

Refunds will not be made if a motorist trades a car licensed in the 26 category for one in the $19 classification.

A new numbering system, called "Alpha-Numeric," will be used.

This means that three letters of the alphabet will be used as a prefix. No plate will have more than three numbers after the alphabet prefix.

License plate prefixes for Hempstead County are as follows:

ANO- 201-999, ANP- 001-999, ANR- 001-999, ANS- 001-999, ANT- 001-500.

me Would ld Mixed rinks Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has been asked to include a bill to legalize the sale of mixed drinks in his call for a special session of the legislature next year and under certain conditions will do it, one of his aides said Wednesday.

Thomas Elsie, the governor's legal adviser, said such a measure would have to have legislative support in advance and would have to be written in such a way that it would not violate law enforcement and the state's ambiguous anti-club laws.

Also would have to provide for local option elections in cities that are "wet," he said.

Elsie said requests for the bill had come from groups in several parts of the state, including tourist areas in North Arkansas.

McNAMARA DEAL

President George D. Woods has approached him in the spring. It had been only a casual conversation with Johnson at a social affair and he thought this was something to be considered for the future—possibly after the election.

McNamara's private version is that he had not heard from President again. This conversation with an administration official that before he told Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler—who put the McNamara nomination in the international mill in October—Johnson had called the defense secretary and asked him if he still was interested in the job. The administration version is that McNamara replied that he was. Even if there were such a dispositive call, McNamara's friends said, he could only have regarded it as a presidential check on possible future action and not a White House action message.

Johnson's explanation that all of this started with Woods' approach to McNamara last spring emphasized that the defense secretary said then he was interested in the job as an opportunity for continued public service. The President added that when he talked to him, McNamara said he believed the Defense Department would benefit from the appointment of a "fresh person."

In neither the President's nor McNamara's explanation was there any time-table given for these various exchanges.

There seemed little doubt the President's political instincts concurred in the defense secretary's belief the "fresh person" might relieve the President of some political liabilities in next year's campaign.

McNamara was a prime target in the Republican's successful drive in the 1968 congressional elections and seemed likely to be again next year. A new secretary would not bring into the campaign the record of McNamara's optimistic forecasts of progress and victory in Vietnam for which he has been under intense political fire.

Not Worried by Publication

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Cross County Clerk Berlan Davis said Wednesday that he thought the Arkansas Democratic Party's new publication, The New Democrat, would be ineffective.

"I agree that the public is not being informed of mistakes and failures of the present administration, but I do not believe a small paper that will be labeled a party paper can do the job," he said.

Davis said he thought the news media should stop "protecting the administration and give the people the news, both good and bad."

nam war.

McCarthy indicated in advance that his target list includes the primaries in Wisconsin on April 2, Nebraska on May 14, Oregon on May 28 and California June 4.

He lists two other primaries as questionable, regarding his entry—the opening race in New Hampshire on March 12, and the April 30 balloting in Massachusetts.

Actually, the races in Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon are automatic for a presidential contender because state election laws in those states require that all candidates, in both parties, be listed on the ballot.

McCarthy hopes to gain a significant vote against Johnson in Wisconsin, acknowledges he may have little success in Nebraska, expresses belief he can do well in Oregon.

That leaves the final contest in California, a crucial one in McCarthy's view. He hopes to secure the support of the dissident California Democratic Council for his effort there.

McCarthy acknowledges the task of wresting the nomination from an incumbent President is virtually impossible. But he maintains the Democratic party must conduct a campaign debate over Vietnam policy.

Should McCarthy enter the New Hampshire or Massachusetts contest, he would be likely to face stand-in Democrats running in Johnson's behalf.

That was the strategy used by the White House in 1964 against the primary challenge of former then-Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama.

In New Hampshire, the administration stand-in could be Gov. John W. King or Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre.

And there have been reports the White House might turn to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy for Massachusetts assistance.

The role McCarthy has chosen is an ironic one, for the 51-year-

Appointments of Murton Opposed

GOULD, Ark. (AP) — W. C. Shepard of Gould said Wednesday that he and other Lincoln County residents were "dubious of the security" that would be maintained at Cummins Prison Farm if Thomas O. Murton were appointed state prison superintendent.

He said petitions directed to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller were being circulated in Grady, Gould and Varner in an attempt to block Murton's appointment.

Murton, assistant state prison superintendent in charge of Tucker Prison Farm, and J. R. Price, assistant superintendent at Cummins, are the only known applicants for the superintendent's job. Supt. O. E. Bishop has resigned effective Dec. 31, and the state Penitentiary Board is expected to name his successor when it meets in Little Rock next week.

Murton, a penologist hired early this year by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, has the governor's backing for the top prison post.

He said he hadn't heard about the petitions, and that he wouldn't want to dignify them with a comment. He did say, however, that he didn't think residents of the area around Grady, where Cummins is located, had any reason to fear escapes if he were named superintendent.

"Cummins has lost more prisoners than I have (at Tucker)," he said.

Shepard wouldn't say how many persons had signed the petitions.

old Democrat was among the men Johnson hinted he might want as a vice presidential running mate in the 1964 election.

McCarthy clearly would have liked the job and a brochure he put out at the time included this quote about him from Johnson: "He's the kind of a man—as we say in the ranch country of Texas—who will go to the well with you."

The vice presidential nomination went, of course, to McCarthy's Minnesota colleague, Hubert H. Humphrey.

Now McCarthy has issued another brochure, a six-page record of his dissent from Johnson policy in the Vietnam war.

In it he contends much of what Johnson is doing in Vietnam "may well be a costly exercise in futility."

es at nearby Loc Ninh earlier this month.

Wheeler said 20 enemy bodies were found on the battlefield after the Communists retreated at daylight, and one wounded man was captured. He said many blood trails also were found, indicating the enemy dragged away a large number of dead or wounded.

Seven Americans were killed and 13 wounded, Wheeler reported.

On Tuesday night the pattern was an enemy ground attack at Bo Duc and a mortar attack on Bu Dop. Wednesday night it was reversed. While the Americans were beating off the enemy, Communist mortars hurled more than 200 mortar rounds at government positions near the district headquarters.

The defenders reported only light casualties and said the district headquarters was not touched. Part of the compound had been overrun during the earlier attack, with 15 South Vietnamese and 65 Viet Cong reported killed.

In the air war, monsoon rains restricted nearly all U.S. air strikes over North Vietnam Wednesday to the southern half of the country from south of Hanoi to the 17th parallel.

However, Navy pilots, returned to the Haiphong area for the second day in succession, bombing fuel storage dumps 7 and 11 miles west-northwest of the port city. Smoke and dust prevented an immediate assessment of damage, the Navy said.

The Navy also reported that one of its river patrol boats intercepted a large, motorized sampan 84 miles south-southwest of Saigon Tuesday and after an exchange of fire seized 150 pounds of medicines, 310 rounds of small arms ammunition and other equipment.

The savage fighting around Dak To last week was reflected in the weekly casualty report issued today. U.S. headquarters said 212 Americans and 1,826 of the enemy were killed in action last week, 1,242 Americans were wounded and 66 Americans were missing, compared with casualties the week before of 225 Americans and 1,561 enemy killed, 1,256 Americans wounded and 22 Americans missing.

South Vietnamese casualties for the week were 261 killed, 66 wounded and 25 missing. Like those for the Americans, they were slightly less the week before.

LBJ Declares Policy Clearly Defined

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says major U.S. defense policies are clearly defined for the man who will succeed Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, quitting the Pentagon for the World Bank's presidency.

But a triple play of announcements by the World Bank, White House and McNamara Wednesday night left in a fog some of the more intriguing aspects of the defense chief's switch in assignments. The statements reported:

— McNamara will take over the presidency of the 107-nation World Bank after he finishes his work on the fiscal 1969 defense budget next year, probably sometime in February or shortly after.

President Johnson maintained "the course of our participation in the war in Vietnam is firmly set, major defense policies are clearly defined" and McNamara's successor—not yet named—can carry on in McNamara's tracks "without loss of momentum or effectiveness."

— Outgoing President George D. Woods of the World Bank sounded out McNamara last April 18. McNamara indicated his interest in the post. He discussed it with Johnson, offering to stay at the Pentagon "as long as he felt it necessary."

— About mid-October, Johnson asked McNamara if he still was interested. Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler had prodded Johnson for the U.S. nomination for the World Bank presidency.

— McNamara told Johnson he was still interested. The nomination went forward to the bank. Its 20 executive directors voted unanimously Wednesday night to offer the $40,000-a-year job to McNamara, after the French representative reportedly delayed to check with Paris.

McNamara's statement described the defense chief as "profoundly grateful to the port and friendship."

But neither formal statement did much to confirm or dispel speculation that McNamara was being thrown to the Vietnam war hawks—that he is being eased out because Johnson purportedly is siding more and more with the military chiefs.
